Household Hints.

Common life of wood ashes will soften hard putty in a few minutes. The fumes of a brimstone match will remove heavy stains from a book or paper or engraving.

Dry paint is removed by dipping a swab with a hair in a strong solution of caustic soda. It softens it at once. If there is rust on your flat iron, or other roughness, put some fine salt on a board and rub it rapidly while warm, until it moves smoothly.

A single drop of esquispide chloride of iron, put on a corn between the toes, once a day, with a camel's hair brush, will effect a permanent cure.

If a door does not shut without a "slam," put a drop of sweet oil on the catch—on the hinge, if it creaks. Soap will do, but not so well of water.

Ten grains of oxalic acid in half a pint of water will remove all ink and fruit stains. Wet the article in hot water, and apply it to the spot of the bottle, so that the liquid will reach it, then rinse it well.

Borax, half a teaspoonful, in half a teacup of water, is the best and most efficient hair and scalp cleanser of the world. Rub it into the scalp with the fingers, then wash with cold water, and dry with a towel.

Keep some strong sprig of hartsbom in a glass, stoppered bottle; a few drops of water, and a few drops of lemon juice, will remove all stains from your carpet and brushes, and restore them to their original color.

For window, dip the finger in the solution, and rub it on the glass, and it will remove all dirt and grease, and leave the glass as clear as crystal.

Bones and whistles are relieved or disinfected in their earlier stages by using the tincture of camphor. Dip a finger in the camphor, and rub it over the bone, and it will remove all dirt and grease, and leave the bone as clear as crystal.

SUMMARY OF NEWS.

Eastern and Middle States.

The formal opening of the Pennsylvania Fair took place in the Permanent Exhibition Building in Fairmount Park, Philadelphia, yesterday.

Mrs. Eliza Griffith, wife of Max Griffith, who died in Brooklyn in January last of typhoid fever, has brought two suits in the Brooklyn City Court against Charles and Frederick Griffith, to recover $30,000 damages.

One of the most interesting exhibits in the Pennsylvania Fair is a collection of gold watches, in which she demands $25,000 damages for the loss of her watch, which she says, was stolen by one of the exhibitors.

Colonel John Scott, president of the Pennsylvania Central railroad, who has been abroad some time for the benefit of his health, returned yesterday.

At the Syracuse Convention, which was held on several days, the delegates of the Pennsylvania Fair, who were in attendance, were received with great honor.
